After high school she went to North Platte Community College for 2 years and played softball and then transferred to Black Hills State and finished her undergraduate degree and softball career. Her primary positions throughout her career were catcher and 1st base, however, she has pitching, infield, and outfield experience. After playing at BHSU, Sami became the Graduate Assistant Softball Coach at Dakota Wesleyan University for 2 years. Sami has relocated back to the Black Hills and in her spare time enjoys helping local softball teams improve their skills.
